

It appears as though the NAB is afraid of competition from satellite radio. Competition is what made this country economically strong. It should be welcomed by the NAB.

Satellite radio is by subscription. The variety and quality of programming is far superior to AM/FM radio. The NAB should use this as a measuring stick on how to improve their programming.

For the good of the American public the FCC should reject NAB's petition 04-160.